THE LOW PRICE OF WHEAT.
A writer in the New York Tribune says that Americans who do not understand why wheat is so cheap in this country, though the crop is comparatively small, certainly 27,000,000 bushels less than that of last year, may find an answer in the statistics of the international corn market at Vienna, received by the last mail from Europe. These reports have been prepared for many years with the greatest care and in commercial circles abroad are trusted even more than official statements. They show that the yield in 1886 has been remarkably large, and says "The London Economist" Vienna correspondent, "but for the decline in the production of the United States and India, prices would probably have fallen very heavily. Even under existing conditions prices remained low and the trade the first day was slow."

"The yield in Austria is reported at 17 per cent above the average and in Hungary 26 per cent. It is estimated that Austro-Hungary will have 33,000,000 bushels to export. In Bavaria the crop is about 30 per cent above the average in great Britain and Ireland 20 per cent; in Servia 40 per cent; in Little Wallachia 25 per cent; in Central Russia 18 per cent; in Cossar 20 per cent; other Russian districts ranging from 90 to 100 reckoning 100 as the average. The yield in Switzerland is rated at 10; in France 105, in Holland 102, in Denmark and Sweden 100 and in Italy 93. The wheat crop of India is reported as 6,300,000 tons against 7,730,000 last year, but exports from that country depend largely on rates made by railroads and dealers.

"This country has probably about 43,000,000 bushels, estimating from the last report of the Bureau, besides about 48,000,000 carried over from last year. The quantity exported in July of wheat and flour was equal to 16,589,880 bushels of wheat and exports in August were also large, but a decline has been observed in the new supplies abroad are assured. With ordinary consumption for food and seed this country has on hand a surplus larger than was exported last year, while the improvement in foreign crop exports' expectation of a smaller demand from abroad."

THE G. A. R. ENCAMPMENT.

The greatest reunion of the veterans of the late civil war since the close of that conflict will take place at St. Louis to-day. There will be more old soldiers there than there were at the reception of General Grant in Chicago in 1879. There will be all the way from 50,000 to 60,000 veterans in the city, and probably nearly that number will take part in the parade. The Milwaukee Sentinel says that the parade will be a remarkable spectacle and Wisconsin will be represented by at least a thousand veterans, including the governor and other state officers.

Concerning the order, General Fairchild says:

More than twenty years ago we bound ourselves together with the understanding that we should meet for bread; that no comrade's wife or widow should want for bread, and no comrade's orphan child should want for bread, and, thank God, we have almost literally kept that faith. To do this you have been compelled, year after year, to put your hand into your pockets for sweet charity's sake. Last year the G. A. R. expended $360,000 for charity and an equal sum was expended by comrades privately without the interposition of the order. Fifteen thousand dollars were spent by the Woman's Relief Corps last year. We have not asked the government of the United States to do otherwise. We simply entreat the government for which we fought and saved to do something for comrades incapacitated for labor; and we have asked congress to grant one thing, if nothing more—that every man so far disabled as to be incapacitated for manual labor, shall be given the small pittance of $144 a year, or $12 a month, to keep him out of the common poor-house.

The conduct of the president in the rebel flag business, and his slurs at the Grand Army men have been the means of awakening a special interest in the St. Louis encampment. The partisan animosity of the administration and of the democratic press toward the Grand Army veterans has done much to make the present reunion one of signal importance.

A GILT-EDGED CARD.
To Prominent Democrats and Republicans of Wisconsin:

You are hereby invited to attend a banquet to be given the democratic president of the United States at the Plankinton house, Milwaukee, on Thursday evening, October 6, 1887. You will please bear in mind that the president can only be seen at this banquet, and therefore the price of tickets of admission, which includes a first class supper, has been fixed at only $12 each. It is worth this price when it is considered how much trouble we have to expend in order to get up a reception and banquet for the president, and even at that figure there is not much money in it. Please accept this invitation if you can, and don't you just as well pay in advance? This would relieve the enterprise of a good deal of embarrassment, as our democratic friends here do not feel much like paying the expenses of the show. Probably you will never have an opportunity to see a democratic president, and this chance is too good and rare to throw away though the price is $12. But if you can't come yourself, please pass this invitation to some one who would be likely to accept it, as the money is needed and the crowd wanted.

MILWAUKEE DEMOCRACY.
(Which is Gilt-Edged.)

Twenty-one years ago the Rev. Dr. Evans, of Westminster, Md., by the advice of his then parishioner Augustine

Kountze, of New York, bought forty-two acres of land near Omaha, for which he paid $600. He has kept this land until now largely because he was unable to get what he paid for it. But the recent land boom in Omaha and the extension of the city have caused his land to appreciate so much in value that it is now worth $100,000. It would be difficult for Henry George to make Dr. Evans believe in his land theory. If Henry George had been in high luck in the Omaha land boom, he wouldn't believe in his own theory.

On Saturday afternoon, Governor Rusk and party departed from Madison for the encampment at St. Louis. The party was composed of the following persons: Governor J. M. Knob, Secretary of State E. G. Timme, State Treasurer H. B. Harshaw, Attorney-General C. E. Estabrook, State Superintendent J. B. Thayer, State Treasury Agent Henry P. Fischer, and the governor's body guard, consisting of Major J. W. Curran, Major F. L. Phillips, Captain W. W. Jones, D. B. Sommers, Captain W. J. Jones, Captain Ben Smith, Mark Smith, W. H. McFarland, Peter Delmar, Eugene Bowen, G. W. Baker and Henry Shetter.

It is said that a stroller who visited the Palmer house, Chicago, the other day, and spent three hours in the lobby, gave the following statistics about the people who came in during that time: One-legged men who came in, 47; unarmed men, 15; men who wore glasses, 40; men who wore mustaches, 106; men who wore full beards, 59; men who had no hair on their faces, 78; men who wore Prince Alberts, 180; men who didn't, 180; men who went into the bar, 110; men who came in and sat down and said nothing, and then went out, 180.

It is already very apparent that the democrats do not like the republican methods of campaigning in Ohio and New York. The democrats never did like anything the republicans ever did except when they got Dr. Burchard to welcome Blaine at the Fifth Avenue hotel in 1884. The democrats will be more displeased than ever with the republicans after the coming elections.

George Westinghouse, the inventor of the air-brake on railroad trains, is worth $9,000,000. The difference between he and Gould is that the former made his millions out of wind, and the latter out of water.

The president sticks to Higgins because the latter is a genuine democrat. The mugs would save themselves a good deal of trouble if they would look at the Higgins matter in this light.

It is a pretty good suggestion of the Philadelphia Times: Let the widows and orphans of the dynamited victims of the Anarchists appeal to the Supreme Court, too.

THE PURCHASE OF BONDS.

About $2,000,000 Worth Sold to the Treasury.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—The aggregate amount of bonds held by the Treasury department was $1,500,250, including $22,024 and $1,377,700 1/4 per cent. New York sold $62,550; Philadelphia, $25,450; Washington, $29,130; Boston, $22,000; Wilkes-Barre, Pa., $100,000; Pittsburgh, Pa., $30,000; Portland, Ore., $10,000; and Topeka, Kan., $140,000. The offers of other cities were of small amount. Applications for prepayment of interest on $20,000 registered bonds were received at the Treasury Saturday, making the total to date $35,032.50.

Four Smugglers Hanged in a Fight.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Sept. 26.—Four persons who had been in the United States Marshall's office at Rio Grande City a few days ago to witness the trial of smugglers who were captured about fifty miles from Laredo. They found the camp in the brush near the river, and a demand for surrender was answered by a volley from Winchessers. A battle followed, resulting in the death of four of the smugglers and the capture of the camp and a number of horses. The rest of the camp escaped.

Corner on White Pine.

MILWAUKEE, Mich., Sept. 26.—It is known from reliable sources that Frederick Weyerhaeuser, president of the Mississippi River Logging Company, which recently bought the extensive holdings of the Eau Claire Lumber Company, is quietly trying to buy the Wisconsin saw mills and the lumber yards of the Weyerhaeuser Company, Milwaukee and St. Louis. A gigantic corner on Wisconsin white pine seems to be in view.

Letter to Major O'Brien.

DETROIT, Sept. 23.—It is said that owing to the blunders made by William O'Brien during his recent American trip, the donations to the National League from America have dwindled, and that Mr. O'Brien has gone to America to endeavor to repair the damage done by Mr. O'Brien. He kept his departure a secret until the last moment, as he feared that he would be arrested and his flight would thus be unperformed in the bud.

Delegates Appointed by Gov. Ogleby.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 26.—Governor Ogleby has appointed the following delegates to represent Illinois at the Illinois River Improvement convention at Peoria October 11: Ex-Governor John M. Palmer, Springfield; Thomas Ridgeway, Shawneetown; Thomas Halliday, Cairo; W. H. Collier, Quincy; Daniel P. Gilham, Alton; Edward C. Galusha, Robinson; and George E. Bacon, Paris.

Three Children Killed.

QUEBEC, Can., Sept. 26.—Three children of a farmer named Coulombe, while playing on the Island of Orléans Saturday, where a shooting competition was held recently, found a shell and lit the fuse. The bomb exploded and killed them all instantly.

A peculiar accident.

PRINCETON, Ind., Sept. 26.—Near here Saturday Dr. Robbie had his leg nearly cut off at the knee by an axe, in a companion's hand, flying from the handle while they were chopping a shell and lit the fuse. Dr. Robbie died before a doctor reached him.

A startling rumor discredited.

PRINCETON, Ind., Sept. 26.—The Gazette publishes but discredits a sensational rumor to the effect that the remains of the great Napoleon have been stolen from the tomb in the vaults and scattered beyond recovery.

You will notice how quickly a thoroughly successful article is imitated, and also that the imitations are without merit, as they are gotten up by unscrupulous parties. Beware of imitations of Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic. The general is sold by Prentiss & Evans and promptly gives dyspepsia, costiveness, bad breath, piles, pimples, acne and malaria diseases, poor appetite, low spirits, debilitated, or diseases of the kidneys, stomach and liver. Price 50 cents.

THE CITY IN HOLIDAY DRESS.

Old Soldiers to the Number of 50,000 Expected to Take Part in the G. A. R. Encampment—The Decorations.

THE BOYS IN BLUE.

St. Louis, Sept. 26.—The twenty-first annual encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will convene in this city next Wednesday. Making due allowance for possible detentions of veterans, it is estimated that the attendance of members of the Grand Army of the Republic will be 150,000, not to speak of their dependents, wives and the vast numbers of citizens who will be attracted to the city by the occasion. St. Louis has made abundant arrangements to receive, accommodate and entertain this tremendous influx of visitors. As early as last February a committee consisting of a number of the leading citizens was organized to take in hand the arrangements for the encampment, and an appeal being made to the business men of the city, nearly $100,000 was raised in one day by voluntary contributions. Numerous hotels of the city could not provide lodgings for all, and nearly all the parks in the city were secured for camps. Under the management of Colonel John G. Gould over 3,000 tents have been erected, capable of accommodating a payroll of 30,000 men, and to day they stand ready to receive their occupants. Arrangements have been made with boarding houses in the vicinity of each of the parks at twenty-five cents a meal, and when the men are not in their tents, the camp will not suffer for want of food.

The decoration of the streets and of the different halls where meetings and entertainments will be held has been executed on the most elaborate scale. The halls at the Lindell Hotel, Merchants' Exchange and the Exposition Building, where the sessions of the encampment are to be held, are literally lined with flags, bunting, shields, pictures of General Grant, and other scenes of the war. The halls where the local lodges of the Grand Army are to be held are also decorated in the most elaborate and lavish style. The greatest feature of the decorations, however, is the arch which spans Olive street where it is crossed by Twelfth. The arch is sixty-eight feet in height. In the center

CHICAGO, Sept. 26.—A cable dispatch from Chicago says a force of police officers at Kilberry, Ireland, seized a lot of cattle belonging to the Hurley family, for rent. A crowd immediately gathered and a riot ensued in which the police were beaten. They then retreated from the place leaving the cattle behind them.

SHOOTS HIS MISTRESS.

[Special to the Gazette.]

MIDDLETON, NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—W. C. Brown, of this place, yesterday attempted to shoot a widow named Henderson, his mistress. He only succeeded in wounding her. He then cut his own throat causing instant death.

FOREIGN ENTERPRISE.

The total yield of the silver mines of Europe is given at $9,633,000,000. The annual product is estimated at $13,000,000.

The Spanish Government has granted a credit of fifty thousand dollars to an officer of its navy who has designed a new submarine torpedo boat, which it is said, will be capable of remaining submerged all day at a time.

There is an exhibition at Havre the trunk of a gigantic oak over one hundred feet in circumference, and fifteen feet in diameter at the base, and weighing 151,000 pounds, that was dug from the bed of the Rhine river at La Bâlon in 1854. An iron boat, especially constructed for the purpose, transports the tree for exhibition.

The electric light continues to advance as a defensive implement of war, the German authorities having recently added a new machine to their military equipment. It is a portable combination of a steam engine, dynamo, and large searchlight, which is used for the purpose of projecting a strong light in front of important works, so as to guard against surprise.

Exterior workmen are being supplied in nearly all trades by foreigners. The London bakers are in the hands of the Germans, the shoemaking is done by the Swiss, the tailoring by the French, the forgers by the English, waiters, Italian restaurants are taking the place of the chophouses, but we fail to note any instance of Americans leaving their country for any such purpose.

The Dutch Government contemplates the construction of a railway on the Island of Sumatra for the purpose of utilizing some coal fields discovered, and recently opened, in the interior. The coal is said to be inferior to the best English coal, and the yield is estimated at 300,000 tons. The work on the railway is to be done over six years, and the cost will be about 16,000,000 dollars, or $9,400,000.

The Hong Kong Chamber of Commerce has held a special meeting to consider the subject of the establishment of a mail service via Canada, and has telegraphed to the Chancellor of the Exchequer its strong desire to see the proposal carried into effect. The resolution of a similar character has been adopted and transmitted to the Government by the Chambers of Commerce of Shanghai, Foochow, Amoy, Roko and Yokohama.

A new use for seaweed has lately been discovered in England. The weed is boiled with carbonate of soda, and the filtered solution treated with sulphuric acid, by which means there is obtained from it a substance that is found to possess more viscosity and which can profitably be made to stiffen various textile fabrics. From the cellular fibrous matter left after the extraction of that material—which is given the name of alginate—a very good quality of writing paper can be cheaply made.

A LONDON firm of gun and sword manufacturers have obtained the contract for supplying 100,000 rifles to the British Government, to be delivered within three years. The terms of the contract provide for a very stringent test. The gun must stand 100 pounds weight on the point without the slightest deviation. This is for a light blade under one pound is a far more severe test than has ever before been applied to an arm. They have also to be struck in a mechanical way with a 170 pound blow.

Telegrams constantly announced the approach of delegations yesterday, and the blunders made by William O'Brien during his recent American trip, the donations to the National League from America have dwindled, and that Mr. O'Brien has gone to America to endeavor to repair the damage done by Mr. O'Brien. He kept his departure a secret until the last moment, as he feared that he would be arrested and his flight would thus be unperformed in the bud.

After visiting their quarters many sought their comrades from Illinois, who are quartered at Lyon park. There hundred and, as they took possession the one-legged staff of Wisconsin marched around on an inspection tour. O'Brien's first delegation of 400 men from Chicago and his horses to St. Louis park, where they were joined by squads from Indiana, Kansas and Massachusetts, and many men at their tents at Washington park, though the posse will not arrive until to-day.

General Saenger arrived Saturday and tendered a brilliant reception by Ramon Ross. He says that under no circumstances will he be a candidate for Commander-in-Chief.

On the day of the grand parade—Tuesday—there will be practically no inspection as J. R. Robbie has his leg nearly cut off at the knee by an axe, in a companion's hand, flying from the handle while they were chopping a shell and lit the fuse. The bomb exploded and killed them all instantly.

You do not have full confidence in your husband. Beware! He is deceiving you. You have a very gentle nature. Everybody loves you. You have had trouble with a relative; it was not your fault. —The gentleman who brought to Milwaukee, from New York, a silk loom, upon which elegant silk handkerchiefs bearing an excellent picture of the Exposition are woven, has visited every institution of this character on this continent, and is free to admit, that he has never entered an exposition where a better lot of exhibits, considering variety and attractiveness, was made. He goes to great expense in getting a pattern for making the "1887 Exposition" handkerchiefs, and those which he offers for sale have been greedily taken by visitors. By the way, this is the first loom of the kind ever seen in the northwest and is really a wonderful machine.
